

REMIX TV TO AIR ON TRANSIT TV
New Affiliate Provides 11 Million Weekly Viewers

Orlando, FL (Oct 3, 2007) – Remix TV is proud to announce its newest affiliate, Transit TV, a network that runs programming on LCD screens placed in public transportation systems in six major U.S. markets. The partnership with Transit TV provides Remix TV with 11 million weekly viewers in Atlanta, Chicago, Los Angeles, Milwaukee, Orlando and San Diego.

Remix TV caters to Transit TV's biggest demographic, Hispanics between the ages of 18-35, by providing segments or "mobisodes" that are relevant and entertaining to Hispanic youth.

Additionally, Remix TV is available in more than 200 markets through America One, LATTV and Vegas TV networks.

About Remix TV

Remix TV is a bilingual (Spanish and English) television program and broadband channel produced by Rage Production. Content for Remix TV is geared toward the Hispanic youth with segments about cars, culture, fashion, new artists and A-liners in Hispanic entertainment. Remix TV connects with all young Hispanics by providing content from correspondent in satellite locations in Texas, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Chicago and Las Vegas bringing the hottest events and news from all corners of the country.

Rage Productions guarantees content that is entertaining for Hispanic youth by having young talented Hispanic professional not only manage the production and content but the entire business.

Remix TV is distributed independently to U.S. broadcast and cable outlets, segments can be viewed on the Remix TV broadband channel www.rmxtv.com.

About Transit TV

Transit TV's network of nearly 9000 television screens can be seen on nearly 4000 transit vehicles across Los Angeles, Chicago, Atlanta, Orlando and Milwaukee, creating one of the largest digital out-of-home networks in North America and the largest specifically targeting transit riders. Transit TV enhances riders' journeys, while also providing Transit agencies with an additional revenue source and enabling advertisers to reach a previously untapped young audience.

Transit TV is a wholly owned subsidiary of Torstar Corporation, Toronto, Canada. Torstar Corporation is a broadly based media company listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange (TS.B).

MEDIA CONTACT:

Jeff Hartlieb

Transit TV

407-226-0204